PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

As President for my second term, I would again like to convey my pleasure in serving in this capacity. Many of the plans we made at the beginning of my term have not yet been complete. I really hope we can complete some of these. We did work on several formal lessons but still have many left to do. At a recent meeting, the group decided to have these lessons in the Library and members can work on them, on their own. We hope to have one or two presentations directly from these lessons.

We have also been working on a list of Liberty County Homesteaders and hope to put these into a separate publication to be available in the fall-- perhaps at the Harvest Festival.

One thing I personally would like to work on, is a list of names that members and friends are researching. This list would be displayed as a poster in our section of the Library and then whenever any other member sees a name on the list, it can be noted. If anyone has names to put on this list, let me know.

We are all proud of this publication and the editor Betty Marshall. She puts a lot of time and effort into it. My thanks to her and to the group for their efforts to accomplish our goals.

THE KUHRY-ZETTEL FAMILY

Complied by Helen Ann Aaberg

The first weekend of Aug. 1986, will see a gathering of the Zettel family in Formosa, Ontario, Canada. There probably will be more than a hundred descendents of Lucas Zettel who was the first of the family to arrive in North America. Lucas is my great great grandfather.

My parents, Peter M. Kuhry and Elizabeth H. Zettel, came to Montana in 1915 settling in Great Falls. Elizabeth was born in Formosa, Ontario. Peter was born in Leighton, Michigan. After his mother's death when he was eight years old, his father and two children moved to Formosa. Peter and Elizabeth were married there and headed west to Medicine Hat, Alberta and several years later to Great Falls, Montana. Their move to Chester, Mont. was to have been of short duration, but fate in the form of a depression changed the business climate and they stayed on in Chester. Peter died in 1961 at age 82 and Elizabeth in 1970 at 86 years of age..

My genealogy research began about eight years ago. Like too many of us I waited until the search became more difficult--after the death of my parents. My Zettel research has been relatively easy with so many relatives to draw information from. The Kuhry family research is much more difficult. They seem not to be abundant in number and to date I've not encountered anyone searching that surname..

Elizabeth Zettel Kuhry was born in the little village of Formosa.. It was a predominantly German-Catholic settlement with lots of families being related and having come from Germany in the early 1800's. The Zettels were a musical family with several outstanding musicians in their lineage. Their main amusement was songfests and dancing. Elizabeth was also famed as a seamstress who not only sewed beautifully but who created her own designs..

The Zettels came to America in 1831. In a Bible the story of the journey is written telling how they drove by horse and wagon for three weeks from Schwaldorf, Rottenberg, Kingdom of Wuertenburg to LeHarve, France, to sail. They sold the horses and brought the wagon to America with them, the journey by water taking thirty-one days in a three masted ship. Lucas Zettel was 46 years of age when they left Germany, his wife, Monica Straub, was 40. Their seven children ranged in age from three to seventeen, my great grandfather, Andrew, among them. Andrew and his wife, Magdalene Holrad, decided to settle in an area of Bruce County called Culross. They left their children except an infant with their families and set out for a new home carrying a sack of flour and the baby. They expected to return for the children in a short while. Instead, it took them two years to clear land of trees and brush, build a shack and lay claim to their land. When they did return they found a little daughter had died three weeks earlier. My grandfather, Lucas, was said to be the first white child born in their new settlement in 1854. Lucas married Helen Schuhmacher, my grandmother. Very little of the Schuhmacher history is known to me except that the father's name was Anton and the mother was Anne Marie Morbacher.

The Kuhry side of my ancestry has been more difficult to trace. My father's father, also named Peter, was born in Canada to Valentine Kuhry and Magdalene Fach or Foch. Valentine and several brothers came from Alsace, village unknown, to Canada in about 1840. Legend has it that they probably came from Strasbourg but were originally from Switzerland. The name is of Swiss origin. It is interesting to note that when the Kuhrys left Alsace it was under French rule but they considered themselves German. Some census lists will show their nationality French and others German. Magdalene died when my grandfather Peter was very young, and his father then married a Philippina Ohlheiser. The family farm was near St. Clements, Ontario in Waterloo County. It was near a farm owned by a Mennonite family - the Jabez Millers. Young Peter and Barbara Miller had eyes only for each other and despite the difference in religion and a move to Michigan by the Millers, they were married and also moved to Michigan.

Jabez Miller had come to Ontario from York County, Pennsylvania, where he was born in 1808 as was his father Abraham, born in 1769. The Millers were strong in their Mennonite belief and were against war, choosing to serve in ways other than bearing arms. Running supplies in their Conestoga wagons fulfilled their obligation to their new country. Most of these people had been given passage to America and, previously, sanctuary from oppression, by the Queen of England so they felt a strong sense of loyalty to the crown. When the war of 1812 erupted they decided this young nation was not a peaceful one and made plans to move to Canada. Again, their trip to "Upper Canada" was a harrowing one, traveled by Conestoga wagon through the mountains of Pennsylvania to the Niagara River where they used their wagons, chinked with clay and leaves, to ford the river in a strong current several miles above Niagara Falls. After the Civil War the state of Michigan offered a great opportunity to farmers to obtain land. They were eager to have the state settled and the land tilled, so the Miller family moved to land near Grand Rapids. Each member of the family had at least forty acres of land. The original Jabez Miller farm is still being farmed by a descendent. It was here that Peter Kuhry, my father, was born and resided the early years of his life. An epidemic of diptheria took the life of his mother and three siblings within two months. In mute testimony to the tragedy stands the grave markers in an almost abandoned cemetery near an abandoned country church they helped build.

One wonders in our journey through life what it was that shaped our destiny--our personality--our likes--our prejudices--our talents. Experts still argue whether environment or heredity is most responsible for who we are as individuals. In looking at the lives of my ancestors, I think I see some traits of mine and even my children that I might trace back to them. I doubt that I would ever have had the courage and strength they had to leave their homes and sail to a new land, but then, it was a different age. Perhaps future generations will look at all the new technology of our age and see in us something that we are not aware of. Perhaps they will think of us as strong and courageous. Perhaps.....

By way of a query, I would like to ask if anyone doing research in the Waterloo-Wellington Branch of the Ontario Genealogical Society has information regarding either of the surnames KUHRY or MILLER, they would send such information to me. From the research I have done, I know that there was quite a Mennonite movement into Upper Canada about the time the Millers moved there. It would seem, also, that there were a number of people from Alsace who settled in the Kitchener area. Was there a connection between the families who left their homes in Alsace to take up residence in Canada??? I'd like any information available as to the history of the movement and more particularly information about the two surnames. Please contact: Helen Ann Aaberg, Box # 555, Chester, Mt. 59522
